4. [ ] J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called and said he would like to make the usual request for a [ ] "if, as, and when he may become available." Sourwine referred to recent reports of [ ] defection [ ] I notified Mr. [ ] and asked him to make a record of the Subcommittee's interest.

Sourwine also asked about a report he had received from an informant source to the effect that the Soviets have a manned space station in orbit over the Soviet Union which is conducting "target practice" on U.S. reconnaissance satellites and has in fact shot down several of these. I told Sourwine I was sure there was no truth to this report, but I would talk to our people about this and be back in touch with him.

5. [ ] Called Homer Krout, Administrative Assistant to Representative Joel T. Broyhill (R., Va.), about the Congressman's call to [ ] about the interest of a former employee, [ ] I told Krout that to the best of our knowledge [ ] had not made known his interest in reemployment possibilities to the Personnel people and suggested that this be done as a first step. Krout said if we could make a call to [ ] as a followup to the Congressman's interest and make arrangements for an interview he was sure this would take care of the matter. [ ] 25X1A was advised of Representative Broyhill's call. He will call [ ] and arrange an interview.

25X1C Committee on Atomic Energy, called with reference to the New York Times 25X1 article yesterday reporting on the [ ] [ ] Murphy cited the Joint Committee's interest and concern with NATO security in connection with agreements for cooperation for the sharing of atomic energy information and asked if I would check to see whether

25X1 2. [ ] In response to the Senate Armed Services Committee staff's request for our views on the Symington amendment to the Military Procurement Act, I talked several times with Mr. Jim Woolsey, of the staff, and in response to his request provided him with language the Committee might use in conference to clarify the scope of the amendment.
It was understood by Woolsey that this was done on an informal basis and there would be no attribution to the Agency in any use of these suggestions.

Woolsey commented that the staff was meeting with Chairman Stennis this afternoon to discuss strategy for the conference on the Military Procurement Act and the Senate conferees will meet tomorrow for the same purpose.

Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, a copy of the JPRS translation of the Soviet document "Stairway of War and Deception." This was passed to Martin on the suggestion from CI Staff that we attempt to get this published in a congressional medium.
